

Crime in Chicago

By, Chandler Stegen

INFS 360: Business Intelligence and Data Visualization

April 20, 2023

Executive Summary

What community area has had the most instances of crime over the past 5 years?

What community area has had the least instances of crime over the past 5 years?

What is the racial makeup of these two community areas?

What are the income levels of the working population in these two community areas?

What is the distribution of attained education in these two community areas?

What is the age distribution of these two community areas?

Data Sources:

Chicago Data Portal:

Crimes - 2001 to Present

Boundaries - Community Areas (current)

Chicago Metropolitan Agency for Planning:

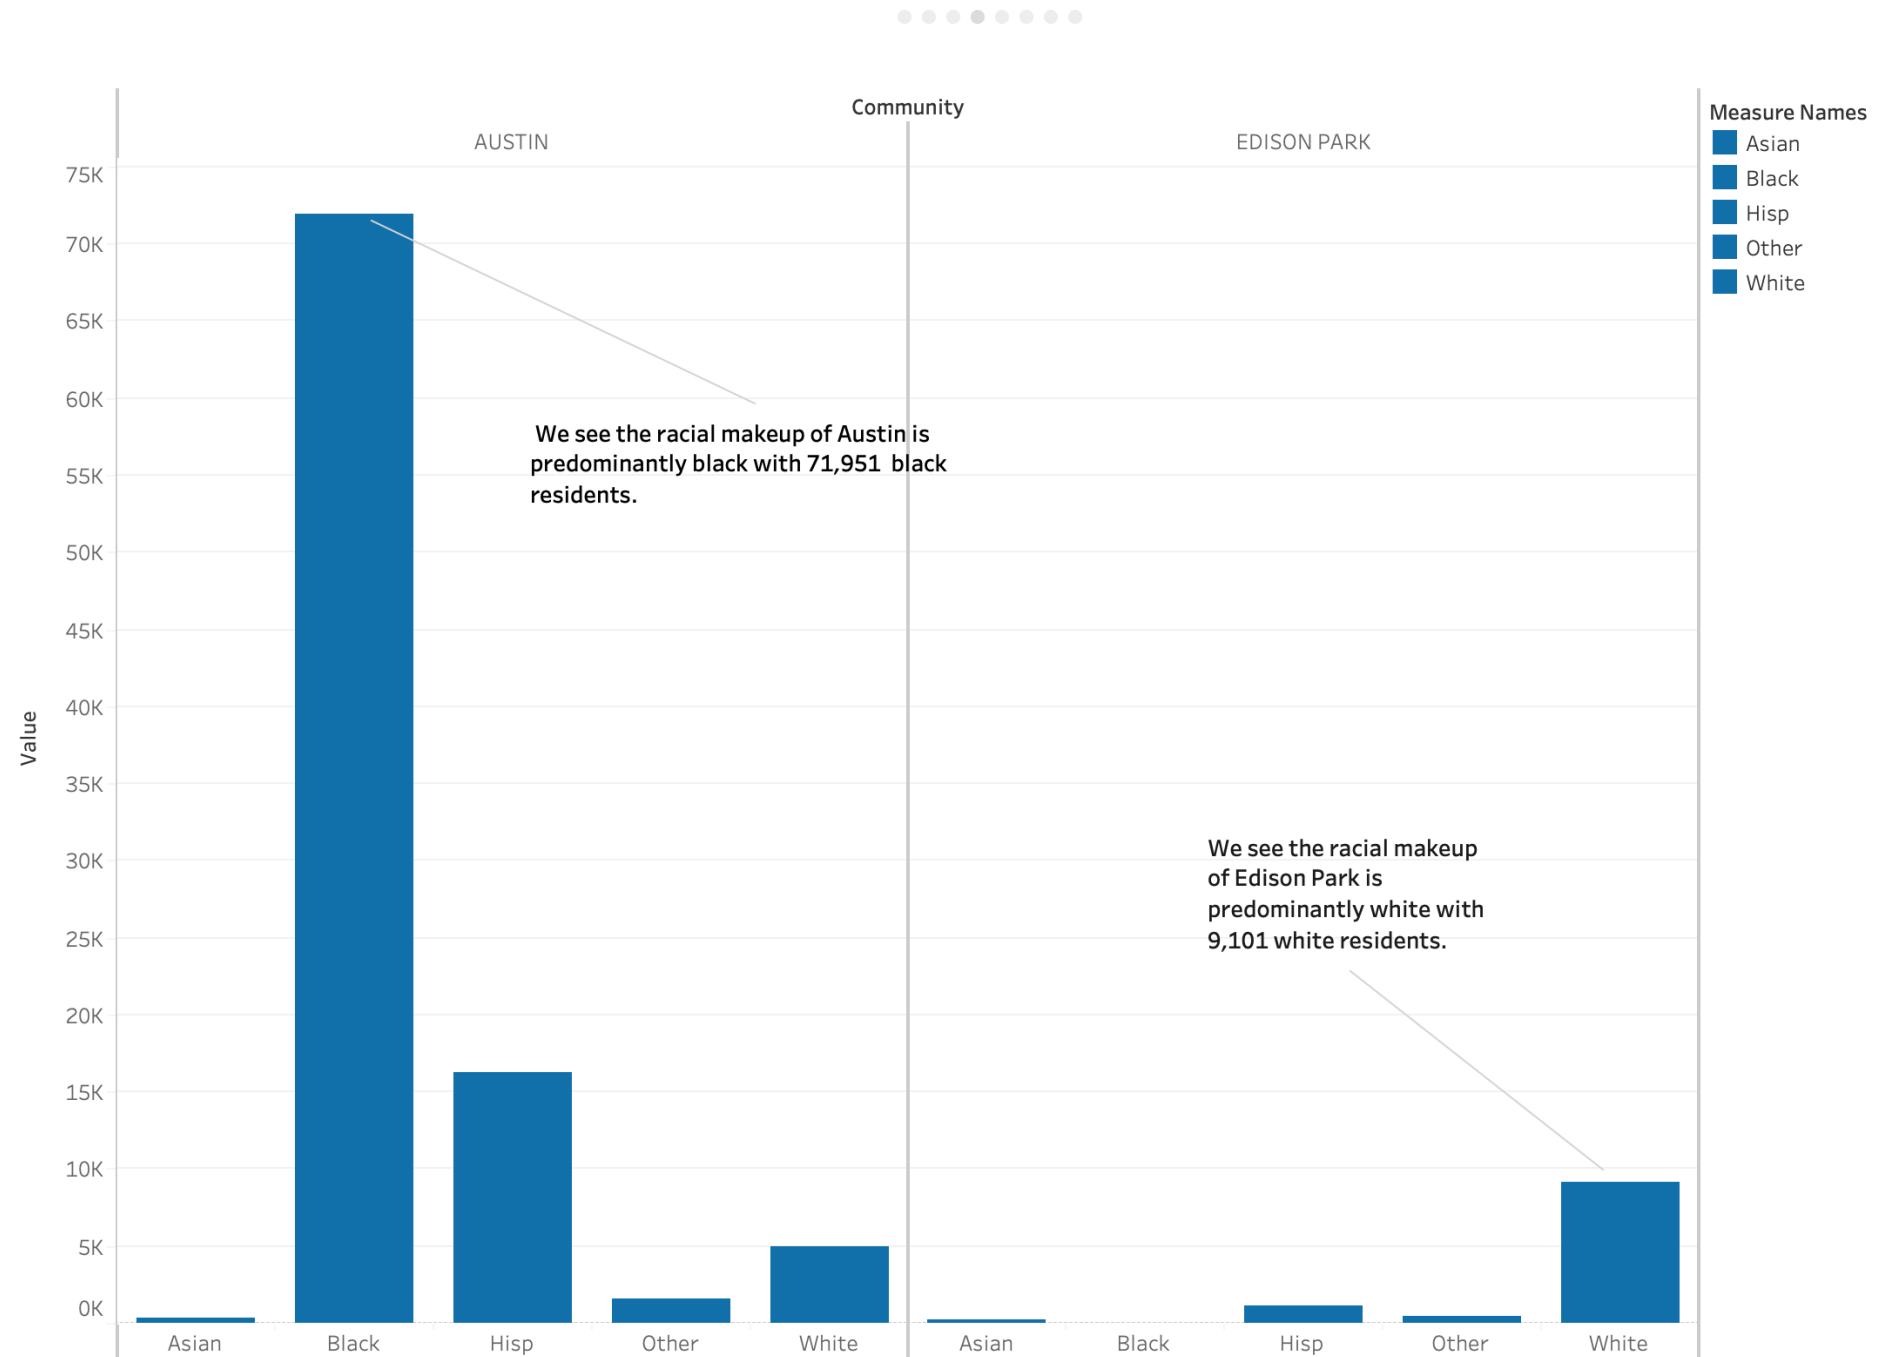

Community Data Snapshots

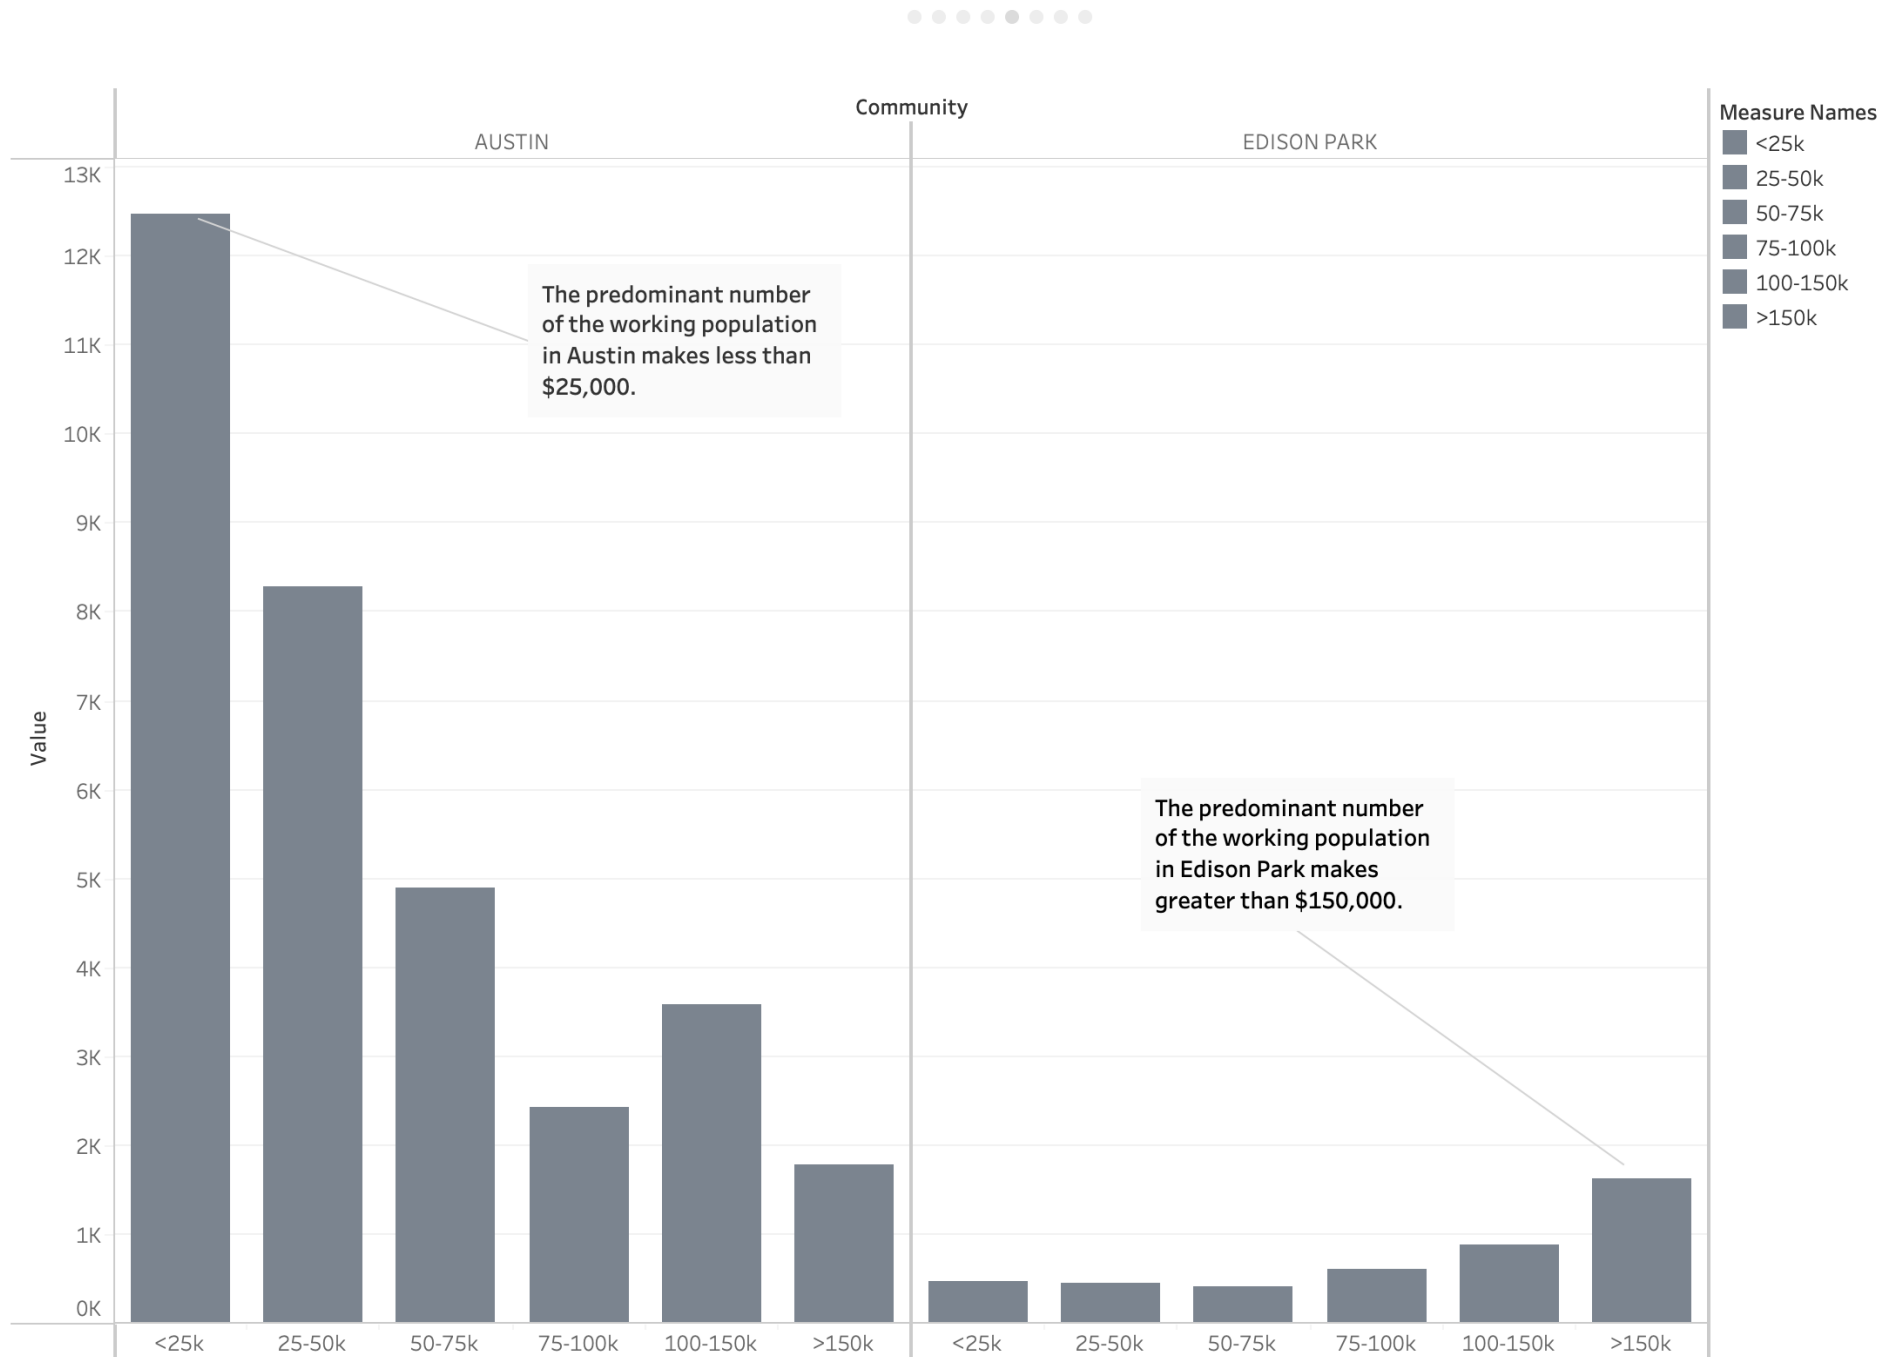

City of Chicago Map by Community Area

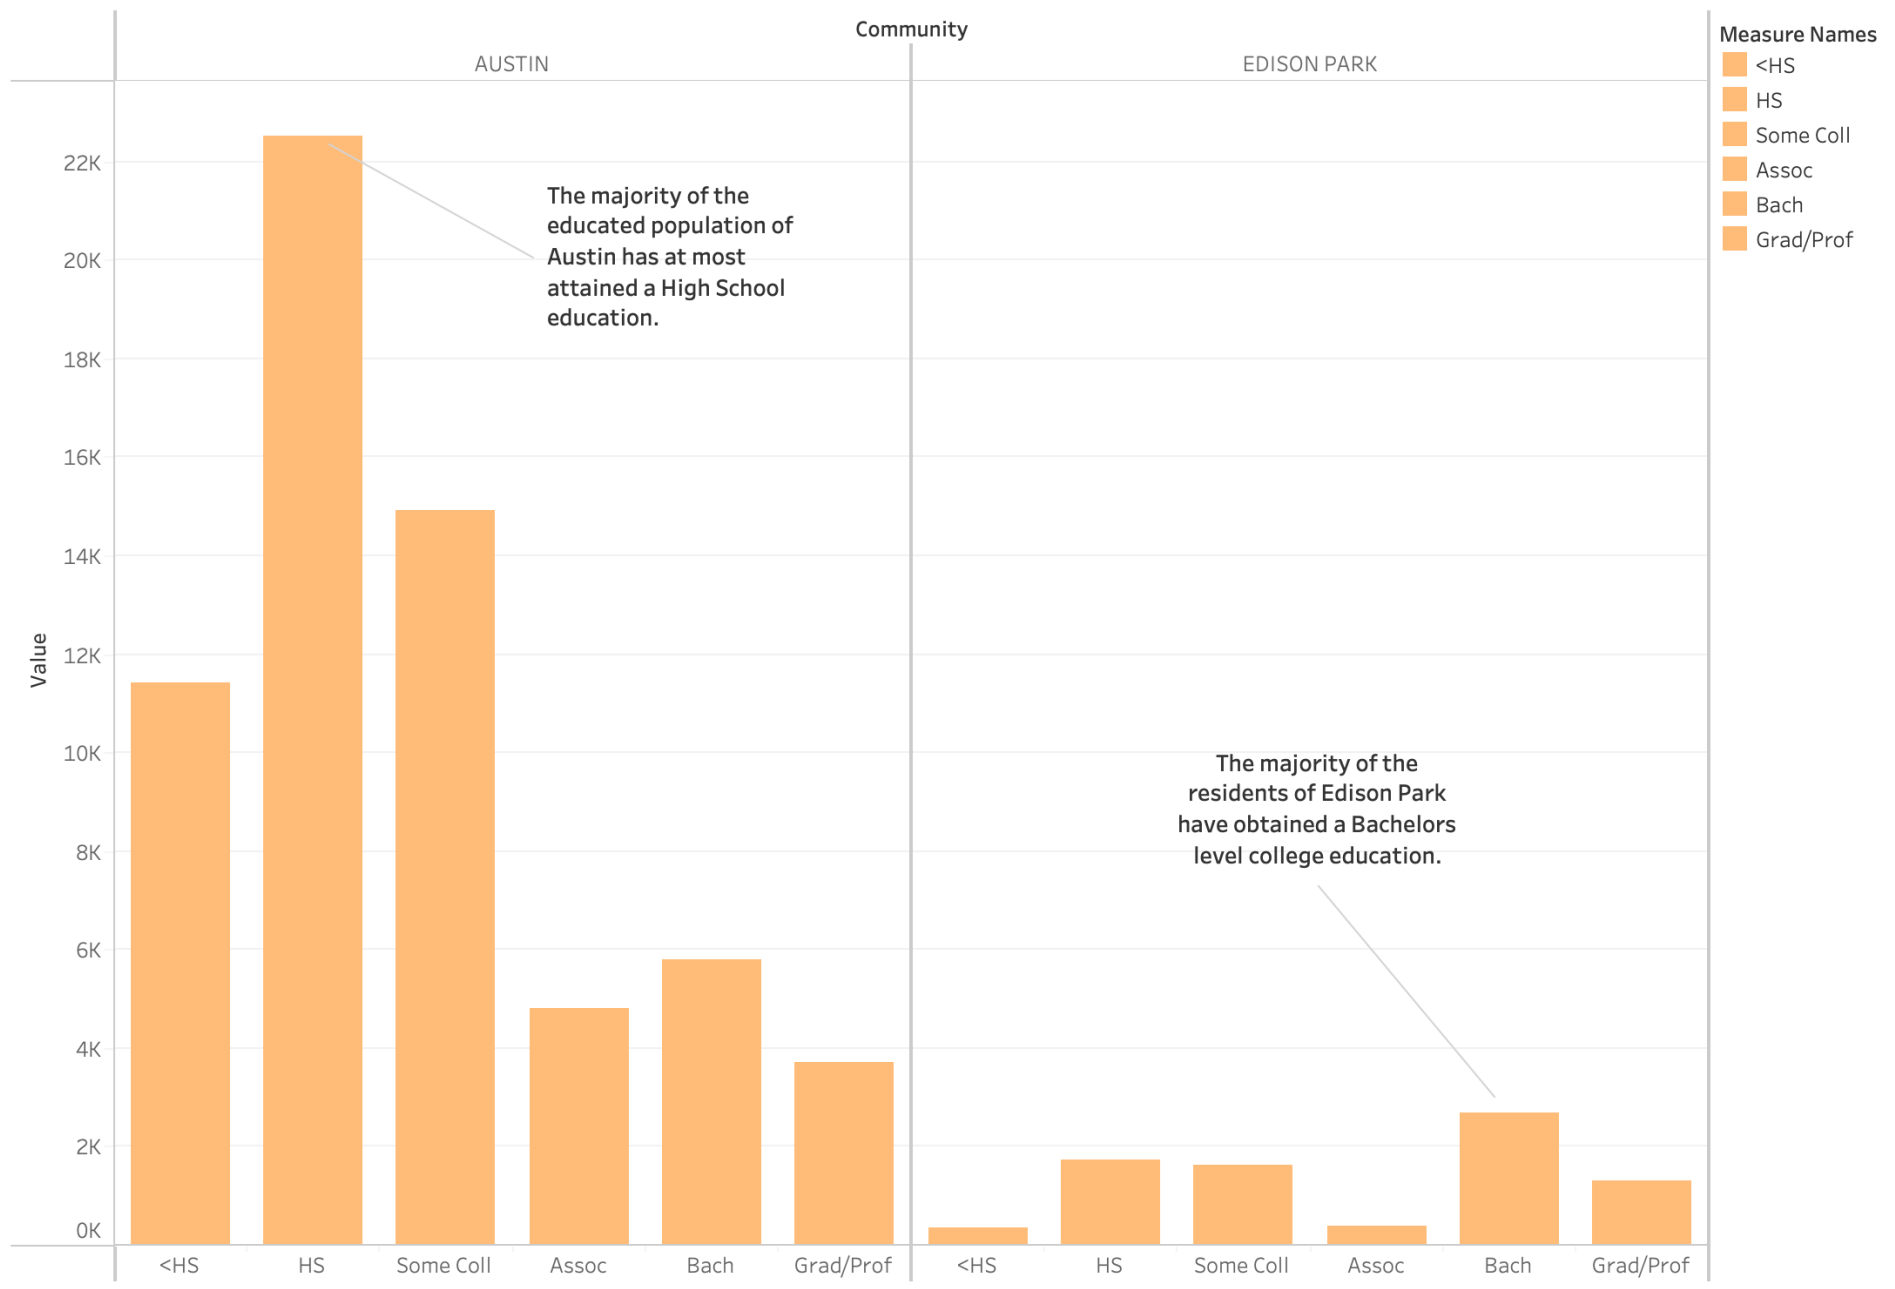

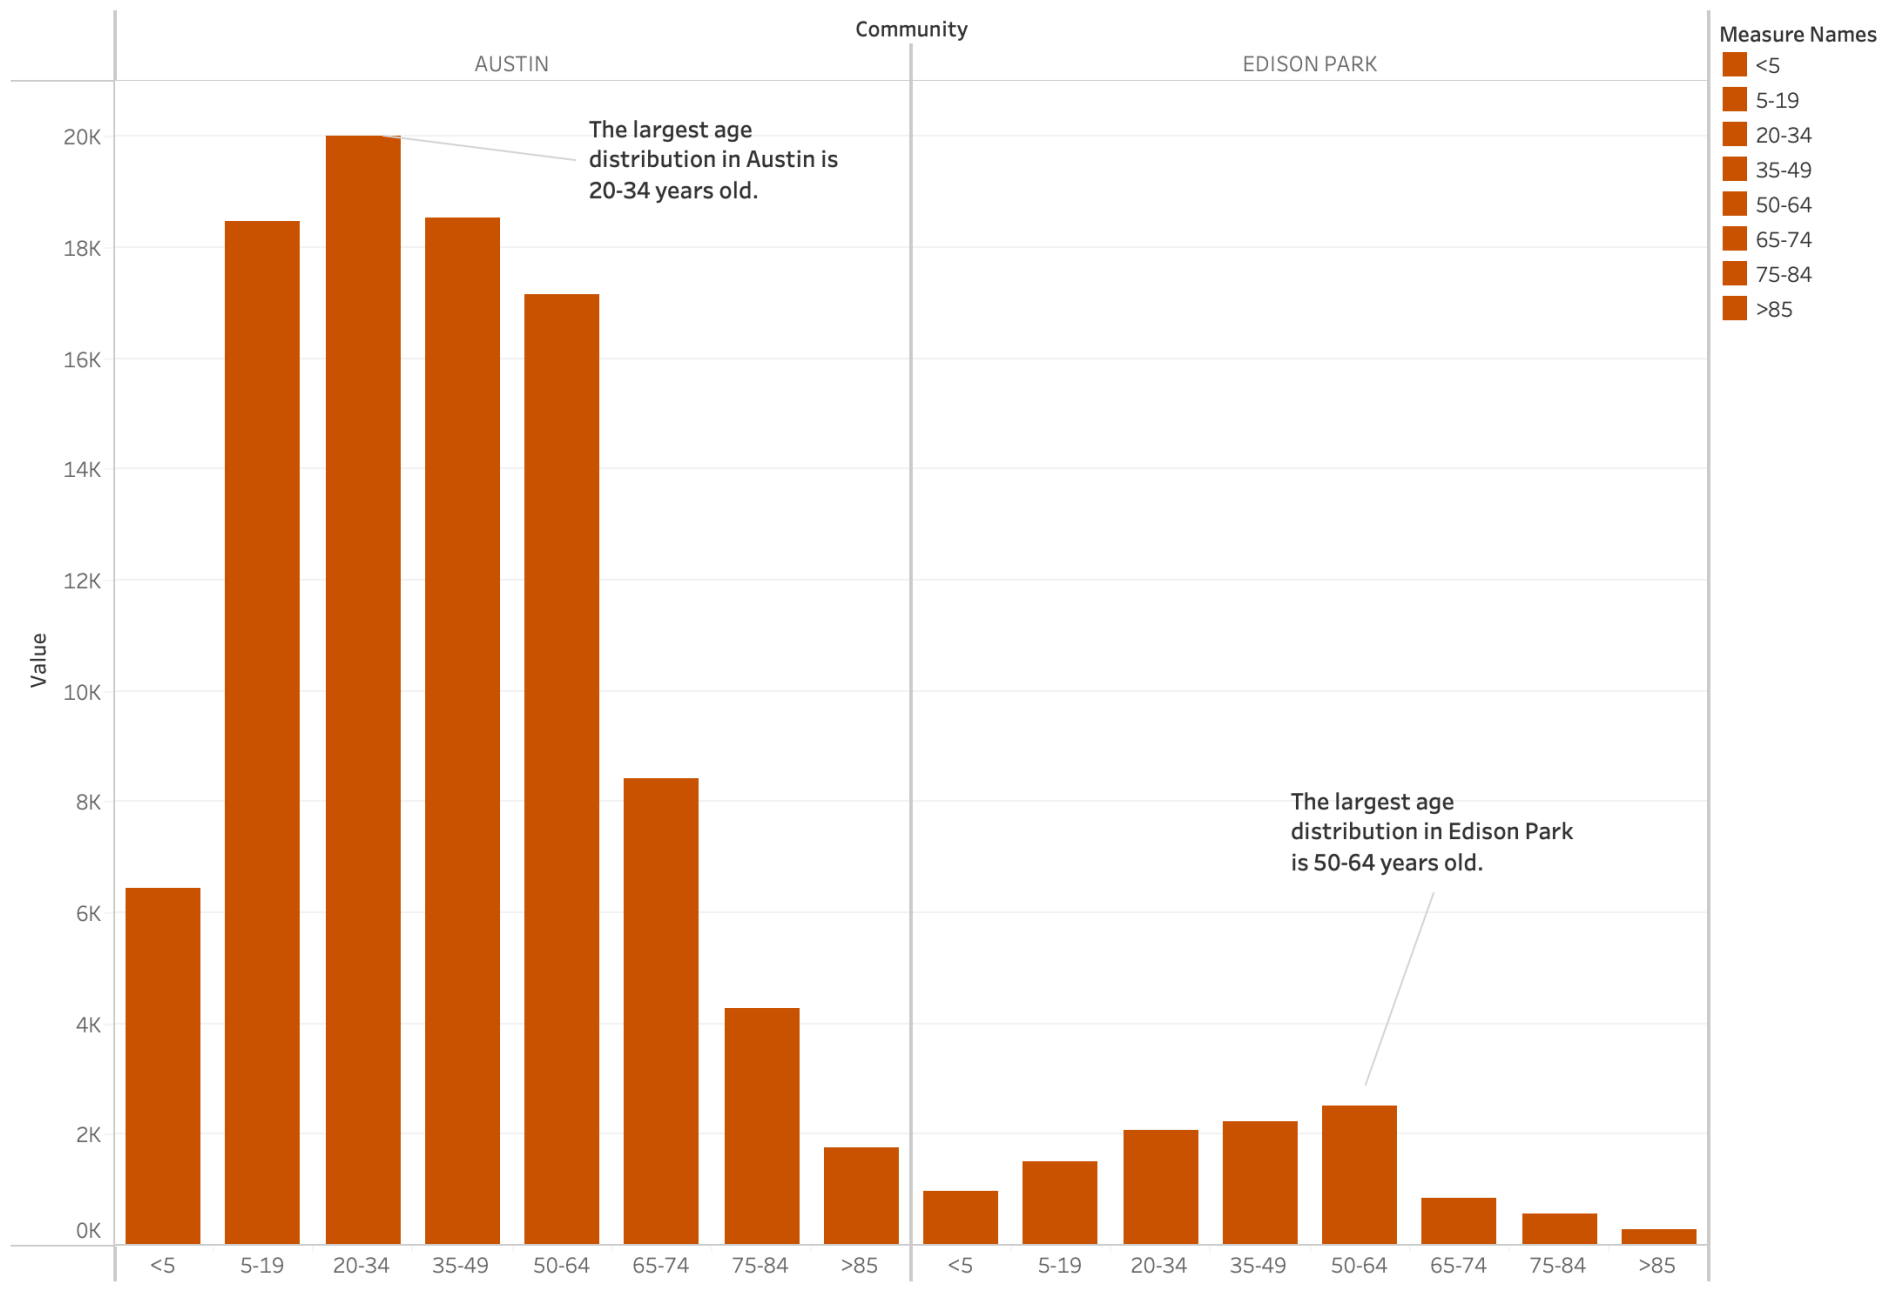

This is Edison Park located on the Northwest side of the city. With a total population of 11,002. It has the lowest total occurrences of crime with 1,299.

This is Austin, located on the Southwest side of the city. With a total population of 95,073. It has had the highest total occurrences of crime over the past 5 years with 65,850 .

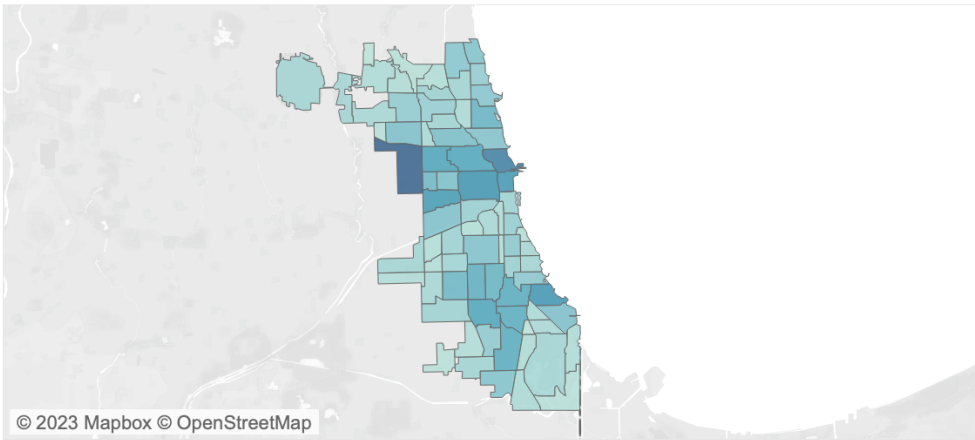

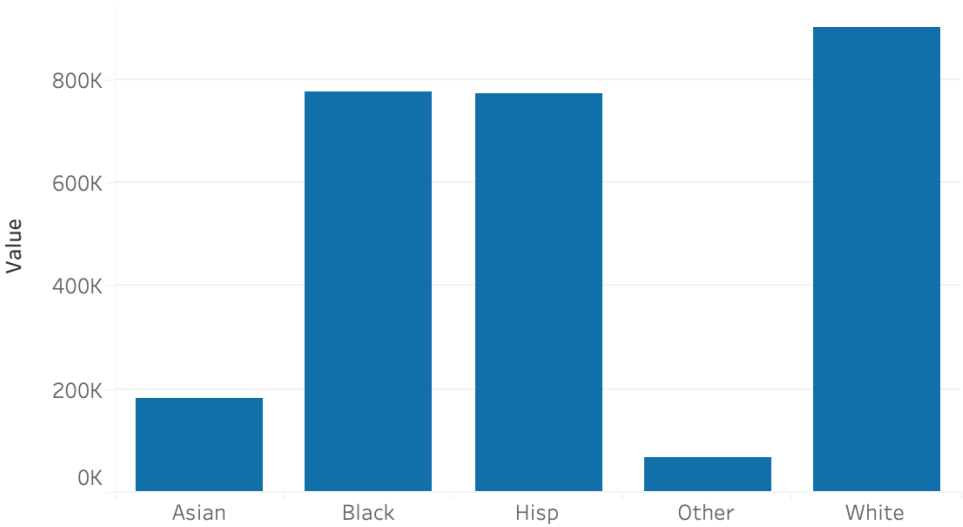

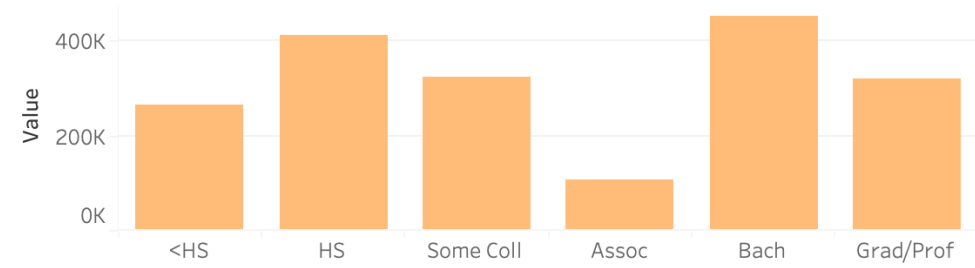

Crime by Community Area in City of Chicago

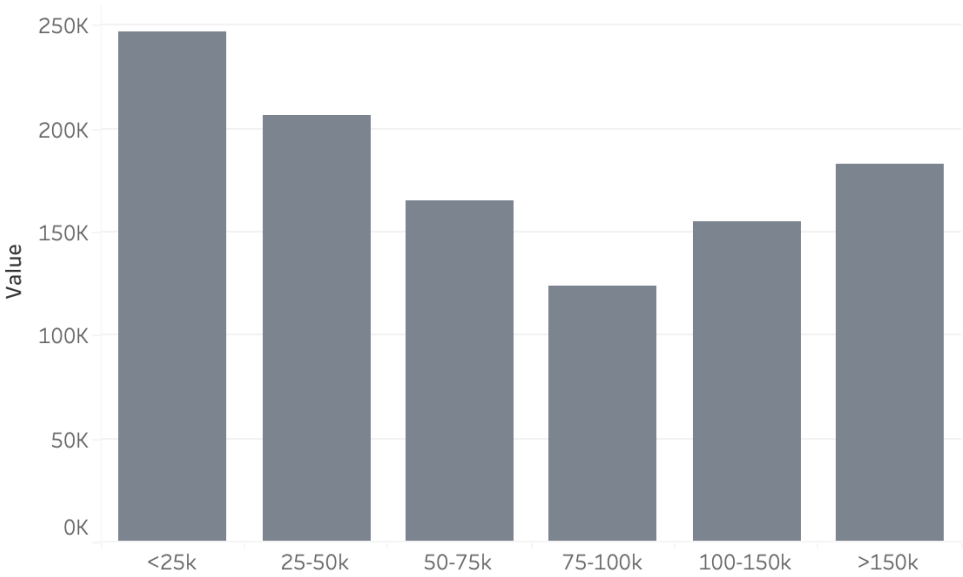

Race

Education

Income

Age

